

The start line will be on the southwest corner of the course by the cart shed. High school runners will run the outside loop twice before turning to the finish on the inside loop. Middle school runners will run the outside loop once and then turn on the inside loop to the finish.